

Get the Facts: About The EID!

The EID is the Earned Income Disallowance.

- What: The EID is a program that allows tenants who have been out of work to accept a job without having their rent increase right away.
- How: The EID excludes 100% of increased income for 12 months. It then excludes 50% of increased income for an additional 12 months.
- Who: All public housing residents!
- For more information: call Melissa at 782-1251 ext. 230

Tenant of the Quarter

Congratulations to Georgie Brethen! Georgie was nominated this quarter for being the secretary of the tenant association, volunteering in the store, helping with coffee and donuts on Saturdays, helping with newspapers on Sundays, delivering Tidbits and fliers, and for always helping anybody that comes to her. Thank you Georgie!!!!

Reminder

Family Sites: Please do not leave garbage outside of your apartment. It attracts animals and looks terrible. If garbage is left outside, maintenance will charge for its' removal.

Needle Disposal

-Never put needles down garbage chutes! It is dangerous for others.
-Put used needles in a puncture-proof container (ie. coffee can, laundry detergent bottle).
-Once your container is full, give it to maintenance and they will dispose of it safely.
