

WHA Tenant of the 3rd Quarter

Congratulations to Michelle Holder from Midtown Towers! She was nominated by her fellow residents for always being active in the association, working in the store, her willingness to help any resident in need and her continuous help to encourage a better quality of life for resident and coordination of association events. Michelle received a certificate and a $50 Walmart Gift Card. Congratulations Michelle!

NAHRO RESIDENT LEADERSHIP TRAINING

On Sept 29-30, Watertown Housing Authority held a two day training attended by 15 Residents and 5 Staff. The training consisted of Resident Organization, Resident Council Requirements, Election Procedures and Standards, Role of Housing Agency, Funding Tenant Participation, Memorandum of Understanding, Resident Council bylaws, Articles of Incorporation, Resident Leadership - What is it? Leadership Characteristics and Skills, Running an Effective Meeting Team Life Cycles, Handling Difficult Team Members, Decision Making, Team Approach, Problem Solving Process, Resident Involvement in the Capital Fund Program (CFP) and Methods of Resident Involvement.

All 7 Watertown Housing Authority sites were represented. The training set the standards for what leadership can be within your respective housing areas. Thanks to all who participated!

CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

Presented by Mike Robare, WHA Executive Director to John McKnight, Hilltop Towers, for many years of dedicated service to the residents of WHA. John serves as the TAC President, Association President for Hilltop as well as an active member on the Board of Commissioners. In addition to the certificate, John received a $50 gift card to Walmart.

Congratulations John!

REMINDERS

- 1) Please do not throw needles down garbage chutes! Refer to the signs posted in your hallway for proper disposal-techniques.
- 2) Winter is coming! Please do not park with your bumper over the curb. This makes it very hard to plow the walks!
- 3) Please be courteous of your neighbors by keeping your apartment door closed. Cigarette smoke and other odors can be harmful to others.
