Welcome
2015

Looking for a way for children to make a homemade gift for the holidays? The Flower Memorial Library invites the community to craft for the holiday season at the 4th Annual Elf Workshop! It will be held on Saturday, December 6th from 10am – 11:30am at the library in the Children's Room. Library staff and volunteers will be on hand to help little elves work. All children will leave with two wrapped gifts for their loved ones. Parents are encouraged to help their children craft. If children wish to work with the volunteers instead, parents must remain in the Story Time Room while children are working. This event is open to ages 11 and under—signups are not needed! The Elf Workshop is free and open to the public, and all materials will be supplied. Families are welcome! Please call the library at 785-7705 for more information.
